WHY CHOOSE HAPWOOD®?

MADE IN THE USA

Hapwood® is made in the USA with all materials harvested in the USA. That means no tariffs, which makes Hapwood® one of the most price stable, unfinished engineered products on the market. When you purchase Hapwood®, you are choosing high-quality hardwood flooring and supporting "Hometown USA" jobs.

On early mornings, you'll find Howell employees gearing up for a busy day of producing the highest quality engineered hardwood flooring product in America! A number of our employees have been with us for decades. As others joined Howell through the years, one thing continues to be passed along - we are all passionate about making products known for their beauty and long-lasting quality.

Hapwood® by Howell- Ask for it by name.
